THE LABOR REFORMERS.

Convention. COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 21.—In answer to a call of the Chairman of the National Labor Reform party, eleven delegates who partici-pated in the Labor Convention in this city last February, assembled in convention this city to-day and organized by electing E. M. Puett, of Indiana, President, and C. C. Cameron, of Illinois, Secretary. One lelegate was present from Indiana, Illino's and Missouri and eight from Ohio. The mass was represented by proxy.

A committee appointed for the purpose eported resolutions declaring it inexpedient at this late day to nominate candidates to fill the vacancies caused by the unexpected withdrawal of David Davis and Joel Parker, and that as the Labor Reformers will not be represented at the coming Presidential election, this leaves all mem-bers of the Labor Union party free to vote as they deem best. LONDON, Aug. 21.—Dispatches from Belfast of last evening says that the city is quieter, though the rioting has not ended. The prisoners captured by civil and military authorities were conveyed to the jail, under a strong escort of troops. No demonstrations towards rescue were made. The municipal buildings are strongly a uarded, and the streets patrolled by the cavalry. A dispatch from Belfast of this morning says that during the rioling yesterday, policeman named Moore, was shot and kill ed. A number of other casua t'es are reported. The mob, when not engaged in wrecking houses, assaulted individuals, and shamefully treated many, including Bengin, editor of the Northern Star, a Catholic Journal. All of the schools and most of the mills are closed. Nine magistrates are now on duty. Although the streets were patrolled last evening by the military, crowds col-lected and excitement and rioting coninued. Thirty rioters were arrested yes erday and lodged in prison. At midn the city was comparatively quiet, though occasional shots were heard. It'is reported that several personal encounters beteween rioters and special constables occurred.

Later-Affairs Worse than Ever. BELFAST, Aug. 21, Evening.—Hopes of the restoration of quiet which were excited vesterday by the rather more peaceful state of affairs, have not been realized. The condition, as shown by reports received at neadquarters, was worse than ever last night. The authorities are powerless against depredations, though supported by an armed force of fully five thousand men The school-houses have been destroyed and it is with the utmost difficulty that some churches were preserved from shar ing their fate.
